

Advance

longislandadvance.net

136th Year, No. 42

June 5, 2008

$1

Bellport

Artists recognized

The South Bay Art Association held its 51st Annual Members Exhibit on Memorial Day Weekend at the Bellport Community Center in Bellport Village.

LuAnn Thompson (pictured) won Best In Show for her photo entitled Snow at Rush Hour .

Regina Stark won first place in watercolor for her work Illumination . Mary Bouzianis took second in watercolor for Dragonfly . Joan Hickman won third place in watercolor for Sal . Mary Jane Stevens and George Wybenga received honorable mention.

Adele M. Roberts won first place in printmaking for Synthesis: Eight Swords . George Wybenga took second for Caradras . Rosamaria Eisler took third for Coming Home . Regina Stark received honorable mention.

Thompson won first in photography for Snow at Rush Hour . Nick Delihis won second for Tomb of Mary, Jerusalem . Thompson placed third for Stony Brook Cottage . Michele DePalo received honorable mention. Willet Ryder won first in oil/acrylic for Pacific Palisades Playland . Daveen Herley won second for Rural Afternoon . Eva Gochman took third for Rocky Coast .

Roberts won first in drawing for Windows & Walls: Winter . Evan Hammer took second for Sketches of Spain and third for Sunset at Florence. Joel Furman received honorable mention. Ted Stamatelos won first in mixed media for Metatectonics I. Lester Sprague won second for Graphic Designers Dream . Christina Harrington won third for Abstract III . Carolyn Harrington received honorable mention. Sue Chrien won first in miscellaneous for Abstract Shapes . Vincent Sussino won first in sculpture for Beatrice: Metamorphosis . Regina Seltzer won second for Two of Us. Anne Meinhold won third for Have We Evolved and received honorable mention.